

Monitoring of CSOs for Water Quality in Accordance with the Environment Act, 2021

January 25th, Coventry TechnoCentre CV1 2TT

With the long-awaited Environment Act passed in late 2021, this workshop looks ahead at what it means for the water sector in relation to CSO monitoring.

09:30 Tea, coffee & registration

10:00 Introduction by the Chairman: Mike Strahand.

10:10: Data Informed Strategic Response to Storm Overflow Regulation: Philip Hulme & Cat Leonard, Environment Agency

10:25 CSOs a Little History and Why Digital Rivers are the Future: Tom Williams, British Water

10:40 Swimming in Data – the Need & Purpose: Wilfred Denga, Severn Trent Water

10:55 United Utilities Perspective on CSO Monitoring: Richard Bragg, United Utilities

11:10 PANEL 1 DISCUSSION

11:30 Coffee, cakes and networking

12:15 The Environment Act: A Step Change in Legislation that Necessitates a Step Change in Monitoring: Rob Stevens, Proteus Instruments

12:30 Environment Act 2021: A Practical Guide to the River Water Quality Monitoring Challenge: Wendy Strain, OTT

12: 45 PANEL 2 DISCUSSION

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Hardware Monitoring Platforms for Real-Time Water Quality Data: Glyn Cotton, WATR

14:20 Data Comms Challenges – the Importance of Whole Solution, Consideration and Engagement: Phil Tomlinson, Metasphere

14:40 Challenges of Installing Water Quality Equipment Up & Downstream of CSO Outfalls: Richard Cave, IETG

15:00 PANEL 3 DISCUSSION

15:30 Close - opportunity for networking with tea and coffee

Exhibiting today:

Sensing in Water 2023

Conference & Exhibition

27 - 28 September 2023
Nottingham Belfry

Booking options available soon

SWIG
SENSORS FOR WATER INTEREST GROUP

SWIG workshop: Monitoring CSOs, 25th January 2023

